

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A packaging tape system, comprising:
adhesive tape configured to extend across a face of a box and seal two flaps of the box in a closed position; and indicia pre-printed on the adhesive tape indicating a room or location in a house or office from which contents of the box originated.
2. The system of claim 1, wherein the adhesive tape is formed in a dispensing roll.
3. The system of claim 2, comprising multiple dispensing rolls, each roll being of a distinctive color so as to be readily visually distinguishable from another roll for indicating another room or location within the house or office.
4. The system of claim 3, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the house specifies at least one of a bedroom, a bathroom, a kitchen, a dining room, a living room, a garage, a storage room, an office, a study, a den, a family room or a utility room.
5. The system of claim 3, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the office specifies at least one of a breakroom, a conference room, a file room, a reception area, an office, a computer or a department.
6. A packaging tape system, comprising:
multiple dispensing rolls of adhesive tape configured to extend across a face of a box and seal two flaps of the box in a closed position; and
indicia pre-printed on the adhesive tape indicating a room or location in a house or office from which contents of the box originated;
wherein each roll is of a distinctive color so as to be readily visually distinguishable from another roll indicating another room or location within the house or office.

7. The system of claim 6, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the house specifies at least one of a bedroom, a bathroom, a kitchen, a dining room, a living room, a garage, a storage room, an office, a study, a den, a family room or a utility room.

8. The system of claim 6, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the office specifies at least one of a breakroom, a conference room, a file room, a reception area, an office, a computer or a department.

9. A process for packaging articles to be moved, comprising the steps of:

supplying a moving box having opposed open flaps;

placing articles to be moved into the moving box;

closing the flaps toward one another; and applying adhesive tape over substantially the length of opposing edges of the closed flaps to hold the flaps in a closed position, the adhesive tape having pre-printed indicia thereon indicating a room or location from which the articles were taken within a house or office, whereby the moving box is sealed and labeled simultaneously.

10. The process of claim 9, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the house specify at least one of a bedroom, a bathroom, a kitchen, a dining room, a living room, a garage, a storage room, an office, a study, a den, a family room or a utility room.

11. The process of claim 9, wherein the indicia relating to rooms and locations of the office specify at least one of a breakroom, a conference room, a file room, a reception area, an office, a computer or a department.

12. The process of claim 9, including the step of providing a dispensing roll of adhesive tape having pre-printed indicia thereon for indicating a room or location from which the articles were taken within a house or office.

13. The process of claim 9, including multiple dispensing rolls, wherein the adhesive tape of each roll is of a distinctive color so as to be readily visually distinguishable from another roll indicating another room or location of the house or office.

14. A process for packaging articles to be moved, comprising the steps of:

supplying a moving box having opposed open flaps;

placing articles to be moved into the moving box;

closing the flaps toward one another;

providing multiple dispensing rolls of adhesive tape having pre-printed indicia thereon for indicating a room or location from which the articles were taken within a house or office, each roll being of a distinctive color so as to be readily visually distinguishable from another roll indicating another room or location of the house or office; and applying adhesive tape from the dispensing roll indicating the room or location from which the articles within the box were taken over substantially the length of opposing edges of the closed flaps to hold the flaps in a closed position, whereby the moving box is sealed and labeled simultaneously.

15. The process of claim 14, wherein the pre-printed indicia relating to the rooms and locations of the house specify at least one of a bedroom, a bathroom, a kitchen, a dining room, a living room, a garage, a storage room, an office, a study, a den, a family room or a utility room.

16. The process of claim 14, wherein the indicia relating to rooms and locations of the office specify at least one of a breakroom, a conference room, a file room, a reception area, an office, a computer or a department.
